

2017-2018 PA Day Camp Policies and Regulations

Attendance:

Attendance to each day you have signed your child up for is mandatory. A beneficial and enjoyable learning experience is possible only when prepared and present for class. If your child is unable to attend after registering and making payment, a refund will be provided less a 20% cancellation fee on total (day) program costs. This includes if your child is unable to attend due to illness.

Payment:

Payment is required at the time of registration. Cheque (payable to Studio 410), credit, or cash is acceptable and e-transfers are accepted when sent to info@studio410.ca.

Punctuality, Preparation:

Children should be ready and on time for each Day Camp to allow for optimal activity time.

Studio 410 reserves the right to send disruptive children home early.

Allergies:

Please disclose allergy information to Studio 410 staff members prior to the Day Camp. Studio 410 will make its best effort to accommodate for each child's needs, however will not be held liable for food/snacks that other children bring.

Attire:

All children must bring indoor and outdoor shoes and/or clothing. No outdoor shoes are permitted within the building.

Release:

By registering and participating in Studio 410's PA Day Camp, you and your child(ren) agree to abide by the policies, rules, and regulations of the Studio. By entering, and/or registering for any programs at Studio 410, you release Studio 410 and its agents from ANY liability now or in the future.
